Our Mission
We help people with developmental disabilities work, advocate within their community, and have an independent and productive lifestyle.

Contact Information
www.center4sa.org
2529 Delaware Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14216
(716) 768 - 1795
infonews@center4sa.org

Our Services Include
• Self Advocacy Services
• Peer Empowerment Network (PEN)/Workshops and Social Support Groups
• Access VR Services
• Educational Outreach and Disability Awareness
• Systems Advocacy for people with ID/DD

Call for more information

Michelle facilities workshops and have been really nice teaching people skills that they can use.
The Center for Self Advocacy has provided many high school students at Cantalician Center with skills to become independent in travel, setting boundaries with others, and advocating for themselves. Students have benefited highly from peer instruction and examples and have shown obvious evidence of feeling empowered after attending weekly workshops offered to them at CSA.

Tiffany Czechowski, MA
Behavior Coordinator
Cantalician Center for Learning